

Pinaki R. Dey, MBA- International Business Consulting

Research Associate

Pinaki is trained in Business Administration and has over 13 years of experience in diverse working conditions and teams, predominantly in the field of business research, consulting and knowledge processing. He has worked in the pharmaceutical, biotech, and agribusiness sectors. He has extensive expertise in writing proposals, designing structured questionnaires, conducting primary surveys and data analysis. He has joined the Research Group on Health Economics and Financing in September 2011 to assist with diverse research activities, including proposal writing, data collection, and data analysis, in South Asia.