From Frankfurt Airport to Heidelberg

Heidelberg is about 90 km south of Frankfurt. From Frankfurt International Airport (FRA) there are several ways of getting to Heidelberg:

- Frankfurt Airport has two train stations. To travel to Heidelberg it is quickest to use the Fernbahnhof. Via Inter City Express (ICE) it takes about an hour and usually involves one train change in Mannheim or in Frankfurt. For timetables and train fares please check <http://www.bahn.de>.
- It is also possible to take the Lufthansa Airport Shuttle from Frankfurt International Airport to Heidelberg. Vans run between 7:00 a.m. and 10:15 p.m. from the Frankfurt Airport pick-up location (<http://www.lufthansa.com/ie/en/Airport-Shuttle-Heidelberg>). It is however necessary to make a reservation in advance (at least one day ahead), this can be done directly online at <http://www.transcontinental-group.com/en/frankfurt-airport-shuttles>. The shuttle ends at the rear entrance of the Crowne Plaza Hotel in Heidelberg. From there, you can either take a taxi or walk to the nearby Bismarckplatz and take bus 32 (direction Neuenheim, Kopfklinik).
- By car the journey from Frankfurt Airport is straightforward and should take around one hour. After leaving the airport you need to travel south-west, follow signs directing you to the A5 highway. The Autobahn entrance is only 1km away, the sign reads Basel/Darmstadt/A5.

Arriving by train

Heidelberg is connected directly (or via Mannheim, 10 minutes) to the ICE- and IC/EC-Network of German Railways (DB). Arrival is at Heidelberg Hauptbahnhof (Central Station). You will find train connections to Heidelberg on the web pages of the Deutsche Bahn (http://www.bahn.de/p_en/view/index.shtml).

You will find the university campus to your left. After the bridge, take the first left into Jahnstraße, the road bends right. To park you need to exit the boomed road. You will find two car parks in the direct vicinity namely Parkhaus Medizinische Klinik and the Parkhaus Zoo (parking fees!).

If you are entering Heidelberg and Neuenheimer Feld from the North (coming from Dossenheim or Schriesheim and not from the highway) you will enter Heidelberg on the B3. When you reach Hans-Thoma-Platz take the road to the right, it is called Berliner Straße. Continue on Berliner Straße for approximately 950 m. At this point, turn right into the road Im Neuenheimer Feld (it is at the tram station „Technologiepark“). Continue along the road for 1 km until you reach a T-junction. Turn left into Tiergartenstraße and follow it for approximately 500m. You will now find the Parkhaus Medizinische Klinik, as well as, the Zoo Parkhaus on your right, where you will find adequate parking.
