

Inter-Faculty Seminar Series

Health Economics

UNIVERSITÄT
HEIDELBERG
ZUKUNFT
SEIT 1386

Heidelberg University

Inter-Faculty Health Economics Seminar Series

Thursdays, 12:00–13:00

Marsilius-Arkaden, INF 130.2

South Tower, 1st Floor, Room 204 (K17)

3rd THURSDAY
OF THE MONTH AT 12 NOON

Summer Term 2018

Date	Speaker	Title
15.03.2018	Siddharth Srivastava Health Systems Support Unit Swiss Centre for International Health	Five years on: insights on performance of the reformed Community Health Funds in Tanzania
19.04.2018	Katharina Richert & Lennart Kaplan Alfred-Weber-Institute for Economics, Heidelberg University & RTG Globalization and Development University of Göttingen	Evaluating the Impact of the WHO's Safe Childbirth Checklist in Indonesia – A Randomized Controlled Trial
17.05.2018	Professor Günther Fink Household Economics and Health System Research Unit, Swiss Tropical and Public Health Institute	Do it well or not at all? Early life health shocks, immunity, and child development
21.06.2018	Dr. Markus Haacker Centre for Global Health Economics University College London	Cascades of Care in Health Policy Analysis and Planning
19.07.2018	TBA	TBA

This seminar series aims to bring together researchers, students, practitioners, and others from different disciplines and departments with interest in health economics. Everyone is welcome, and it is a brown-bag seminar series – please feel free to bring lunch.

Organization 2018: Manuela De Allegri and Stefan Kohler, Institute of Public Health, Heidelberg University. For more information or to subscribe to the mailing list of this seminar series, contact: manuela.de.allegri@urz.uni-heidelberg.de or stefan.kohler@uni-heidelberg.de.