

Inter-Faculty Seminar Series

Health Economics

UNIVERSITÄT
HEIDELBERG
ZUKUNFT
SEIT 1386

Heidelberg University

Inter-Faculty Health Economics Seminar Series

Thursdays, 12:00–13:00

Marsilius-Arkaden, INF 130.2

South Tower, 1st Floor, Room 204 (K17)

3rd THURSDAY
OF THE MONTH AT 12 NOON

Winter Term 2017/18

Date	Speaker	Title
19.10.2017	Dr. Yusuke Matsuyama Tokyo Medical and Dental University Department of Global Health Promotion	The effect of compulsory schooling reform on oral health: result from the Survey of Health, Ageing and Retirement in Europe (SHARE)
16.11.2017	Miriam Blümel Technical University of Berlin Department of Health Care Management	The way to Universal Health Coverage in Germany: lessons for low- and middle-income countries
18.01.2018	Dr. Jan-Walter de Neve Institute of Public Health Heidelberg University	Children's education and parental old age survival – evidence on the intergenerational effects of human capital investment
15.02.2018	Prof. Michael Schlander German Cancer Research Center (DKFZ) Division of Health Economics	Exploring the economics of cancer care

This seminar series aims to bring together researchers, students, practitioners, and others from different disciplines and departments with interest in health economics. Everyone is welcome.

It is a brown-bag seminar series, please feel free to bring lunch.

Organization 2017/18: Manuela De Allegri and Stefan Kohler, Institute of Public Health, Heidelberg University. For more information or to subscribe to the mailing list of this seminar series, contact: manuela.de.allegri@urz.uni-heidelberg.de or stefan.kohler@uni-heidelberg.de.