

Available about genetic counseling of the GenKI-Project (<https://www.klinikum.uni-heidelberg.de/en/genki/videos>)

Here you will find videos with medical-genetic information that you can use to prepare for an upcoming medical consultation. Please note that not all of the videos presented here will be relevant to your concerns or illness.

Genetic Consultation

General information on genetic consultations: possible contents of the consultation, procedure, duration.

Consent

General information on consent for genetic diagnostics: What should you think about before the consultation?

Hereditary Breast Cancer I

General information on hereditary breast cancer tendencies: Genetic causes, unclear variants, possible relevance for prevention.

Hereditary Breast Cancer II

More detailed information on hereditary breast cancer tendencies: specific genes, disease probabilities.

Genome analysis I

General information on genome analysis: difference between genome and exome analysis, basic procedure of genome analysis, limitations of the method.

Genome analysis II

More detailed information on genome analysis: Further information on the limitations of the method

Preimplantation genetic diagnosis

General information on the procedure for preimplantation genetic diagnosis: required documents, procedure, costs, duration.

Automated image analysis

General information on the automated evaluation of images: Use in the consultation, data processing.

