

Biographical data of Prof. Dr. Dipl.-Psych. Tewes Wischmann (Heidelberg, Germany)
(Associate Professor Heidelberg University; Psychological Psychotherapist and Jungian Psychoanalyst)

University studies

11 July 1984	Diploma graduation (Dipl.-Psych.) in psychology at Heidelberg University (note: excellent)
24 July 1998	Doctoral graduation (Dr. sc.hum.) at Medical Faculty of Heidelberg University (note: magna cum laude)
20 July 2005	Postdoctoral lecture qualification (PD) at Medical Faculty of Heidelberg University, venia legendi for Medical Psychology
July 2017	Associate Professor (apl. Prof.) at Heidelberg University

Occupational career

Since Feb. 1988	Inst. of Medical Psychology (Heidelberg University Hospital), since Feb. 1990 as a scientific assistant
April 1994–Nov. 2000	Research director "Heidelberg Fertility Consultation Service", part project of the German research network "Fertility disorders", granted by the German Federal Ministry of Education and Science (together with Prof. Dr Rolf Verres and Prof. Dr Ingrid Gerhard)
Since October 1991	Coordinator of medical education of the institute
Since June 2006	Member of the students admission committee at Medical Faculty of Heidelberg University
Since October 2007	Lecturer and since Mai 2015 training analyst at the Heidelberg Institute for Psychoanalytical Child and Adolescent Psychotherapy

Further education

4 January 1999	Approbation as a psychological psychotherapist by the regional council Stuttgart (Germany)
24 April 2001	Examination at the C. G. Jung Institute Stuttgart as an Analytical Psychotherapist (Jungian psychoanalyst)
1 Nov. 2008 and 23 Nov. 2013	Certificate of continuing psychotherapeutic education at the State's Psychotherapeutic Association Baden-Wuerttemberg (Germany)

Research projects

1991 – 1992	Research on "central core conflictual themes" (CCRT) in infertile couples (granted by the Breuninger foundation, Stuttgart).
April 1994 – June 1997	Study "Heidelberg Fertility Consultation Service – part I: Development of a psychosomatic counselling concept for involuntarily childless couples". Part project of the German research network "fertility disorders", granted by the German Federal Ministry of Education and Science.
June 1997 – Nov. 2000	Study "Heidelberg Fertility Consultation Service – part II: Development and evaluation of a training program for infertility counsellors". Part project of the German research network "fertility disorders", granted by the German Federal Ministry of Education and Science.
April 2003 – Jan. 2004	Identification of coping resources in infertile couples and German validation of the "Fertility Problem Inventory" (Newton et al. 1999).
June 2004 – June 2007	Survey on the willingness of organ donation (field research)
July 2007 – Sept. 2010	Follow-up survey "Ten-years-catamnesis of study 'Heidelberg Fertility Counselling Service'"
February – Dec. 2010	Study on behaviour-related infertility and sexual disorders in infertile couples
Feb. 2012 – March 2013	Study on infertility specific quality of life and gender role attitudes in German and Hungarian involuntary childless couples
March – Sept. 2013	Qualitative and quantitative studies on quality of life of infertile men
July 2014 – July 2015	Screening infertile patients for emotional risk factors (ScreenIVF)

Research projects (cont.)

in 2015	Attitudes towards “Social Freezing” – a German online survey
2011 – 2018	Psychometric characteristics of the International FertiQoL questionnaire in a German sample of infertile women and men
2016 – 2019	Development, implementation and evaluation of an interactive teaching DVD 'Medical Psychology/Medical Sociology'
2017 – 2019	Positive Adjustment Coping Intervention (PACI) in Case of Involuntary Childlessness – a Smartphone-supported Intervention Study as RCT
since 2018	Psychological protective and risk factors of women and men in assisted reproductive treatment – a multicentre study in Germany, Austria and Switzerland (D-A-CH-Study)
since 2018	Experiencing and coping with recurrent pregnancy losses among women and their partners – EUWIF
since 2019	Follow-up survey infertility treatment – five years later (NAKIWU)

Other activities

- Co-author of the guidelines "Psychosomatics in Reproductive Medicine" (AWMF; in: Strauß et al. 2004 and AWMF 2014) and the "Guidelines for Counselling in Infertility" (ESHRE; in: Boivin & Kertenich 2002 and Gameiro et al. 2015).
- Founder member (honorary member since 2016) of the "Beratungsnetzwerk Kinderwunsch Deutschland (BKID) e. V." (Counselling Network for Infertility Germany – German Society for Fertility Counselling). From 2002 to 2006 chairman, from 2006 to 2016 vice-chairman of BKID. Since 2018 CEO of the “BKID-Fortbildungsinstitut” (BKID Further Education Institute)
- Since May 2004 head of the board "Psychosomatics in Reproductive Medicine" in the "Dachverband Reproduktionsbiologie und -medizin (DVR) e. V." (Umbrella Organisation Reproductive Biology and Medicine)
- Associate Editor for Human Reproduction (2010-2014) and Co-Editor “Psychosomatic Medicine” of the Journal of Reproductive Medicine and Endocrinology (since 2010), Reviewer for several scientific journals (e.g. Human Reproduction, Human Reproduction Update, Social Science & Medicine, Journal of Psychosomatic Research and GMS Zeitschrift für Medizinische Ausbildung-Journal of Medical Education).

International memberships

- European Society for Human Reproduction and Embryology (ESHRE)
- International Infertility Counselling Organization (IICO); treasurer
- International Association for Analytical Psychology (IAAP).

Prof. Dr. Tewes Wischmann

Contact address:

Prof. Dr. Dipl.-Psych. Tewes Wischmann
 Institute of Medical Psychology
 Centre for Psychosocial Medicine
 University Hospital Heidelberg
 Bergheimer Str. 20
 D-69115 Heidelberg
 Germany

Tel.: +49-6221-568137 (-568151)

Fax: +49-6221-565303

E-Mail: tewes.wischmann
 @med.uni-heidelberg.de

Internet: www.medpsych.uni-hd.de www.dr-wischmann.com