

PROGRAMME
Workshop on Micro-phenomenology

Led by Prof. Natalie Depraz, Université de Rouen Normandie / Husserl-Archives ENS Paris

Karl Jaspers Bibliothek
Heidelberg, February 17th, 2020

MORNING SESSION

Chair: Dr. Leonor Irarrázaval

- 9.00-9.15 Introduction
Prof. Thomas Fuchs, Head of the Section Phenomenological Psychopathology and Psychotherapy, Heidelberg University Hospital
- 9.15-10.15 Microphenomenology: History of the interview and its philosophical phenomenological background
- 10.15-10.30 Coffee break
- 10.30-11.30 Microphenomenological practice I: Description of the main tools
How to conduct the micro-phenomenological interview
- 11.30-12.00 Discussion
- 12.00-13.30 Lunch break

AFTERNOON SESSION

Chair: Dr. Valeria Bizzari

- 13.30-13.50 A Commentary on Microphenomenology
Dr. Christian Tewes: “The interplay of singular experiences, eidetic variations, and structural content”.
- 13.50-14.15 Discussion
- 14.15-15.15 Applied phenomenology combining 1st- and 3rd-person perspectives: The interdisciplinary scope of microphenomenology
- 15.15-15.30 Coffee break
- 15.30-16.15 Microphenomenological practice II: A sketch of the method of analysis
How to analyze the microphenomenological data
- 16.15-16.30 Closing remarks